Where to Now Landlord? by Poet Broker

If only one was born a slave and died a major landlord and Grand Ma to this town If just one brought down a crooked city hall and fed the poor
If only one escaped the death camps with a hundred on his back I would be awed but that wasn't all.

If only one emptied its pockets to plate a building in gold foil
If only one let an artist carve Karl Marx Into a granite facade
If only one rode a black lattice elevator into the future I would be enchanted but If only one cop, nurse or teacher must choose between rent or food

If only one street vendor ganged up at a retail store door
If only one ACLU court contention tangled us in blue I would ask
"Where to now Landlords? What would Grandma do?"

Poetbroker is the pen name for

Ed Rosenthal of New Downtown Brokerage
